WCPD investigates battery and vandalism pursuant to Paul Walker tribute car meet

DATE OF RELEASE: September 13, 2018

The West Covina Police Department is investigating a felony vandalism and an assault and battery to two West Covina mall security officers. The incident took place on Wednesday night 09/12/18 at approximately 11:00 pm when a large crowd of car enthusiasts showed up in the parking lot of the West Covina Plaza located at 1111 Plaza Drive for a Paul Walker tribute. Video has been posted on social media showing numerous suspects committing vandalism to a mall security vehicle and punching two different mall security officers.

The West Covina Police Department is asking for anyone with information regarding the incident or the identity of the suspects to call 626-939-8688.

News Release issued by Lieutenant Travis Tibbetts, PIO. For more information, call 626-939-8685 or 626 824-3781 (cell).
