Chapter 44 of title 18 United States Code, section 926C.
Carrying of concealed firearms by qualified retired law enforcement officers

- (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law of any State or any political subdivision thereof, an individual who is a qualified retired law enforcement officer and who is carrying the identification required by subsection (d) may carry a concealed firearm that has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce, subject to subsection (b).
- (b) This section shall not be construed to supersede or limit the laws of any State that –
- (1) Permit private persons or entities to prohibit or restrict the possession of concealed firearms on their property; or
  - (2) Prohibit or restrict the possession of firearms on any State or local government property, installation, building, base, or park.
- (c) As used in this section, the term ‘qualified retired law enforcement officer’ means an individual who:
- (1) retired in good standing from service with a public agency as a law enforcement officer, other than for reasons of mental instability;
  - (2) before such retirement, was authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of, or the incarceration of any person for, any violation of the law, and had the statutory powers of arrest;
  - (3)(A) before such retirement, was regularly employed as a law enforcement officer for an aggregate of 15 years or more; or
  - (3)(B) retired from service with such agency, after completing any applicable probationary period of such service, due to a service-connected disability, as determined by such agency;
  - (4) has a non-forfeitable right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency;
  - (5) during the most recent 12-month period, has met, at the expense of the individual, the State’s standards for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry firearms;
  - (6) Is not under the influence of alcohol or another intoxicating or hallucinatory drug or substance; and
  - (7) is not prohibited by Federal law from receiving a firearm.
- (d) The identification required by this subsection is:
- (1) a photographic identification issued by the agency from which the individual retired from service as a law enforcement officer that indicates that the individual has, not less recently than one year before the date the individual is carrying the concealed firearm, been tested or otherwise found by the agency to meet the standards established by the agency for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm; or
  - (2)(A) a photographic identification issued by the agency from which the individual retired from service as a law enforcement officer; and
  - (2)(B) a certification issued by the State in which the individual resides that indicates that the individual has, not less recently than one year before the date the individual is carrying the concealed firearm, been tested or otherwise found by the State to meet the standards established by the State for training and qualification for active law enforcement officers to carry a firearm of the same type as the concealed firearm.
- (e) As used in this section, the term ‘firearm’ does not include:
- (1) any machinegun (as defined in section 5845 of the National Firearms Act);
  - (2) any firearm silencer (as defined in section 921 of this title); and
  - (3) a destructive device (as defined in section 921 of this title).
